On 26 August 2021, Narodowy Bank Polski will be putting into circulation a silver coin with a face value of 10 złoty and a gold coin with a face value of 100 złoty – “Beatification of Cardinal Stefan Wyszyński”.

Narodowy Bank Polski is the central bank of the State, responsible for its monetary policy and price stability. The Bank's functions are described in the Constitution of the Republic of Poland and the Act on NBP. NBP holds the exclusive right to issue the currency of the Republic of Poland. As the central bank, it does not provide accounts for the general public, accept deposits from or extend loans to individuals. It acts as a banker to the State budget and public sector entities. NBP also holds and manages the foreign exchange reserves of the State. Finally, it functions as a banker to banks, creating conditions for the operation of the Polish banking system. Narodowy Bank Polski is one of the most important research and analytical centres in the fields of economics and financial markets. For more information on NBP visit: www.nbp.pl

Polish Olympic Team – Tokyo 2020

On 15 July 2021, Narodowy Bank Polski is putting into circulation a silver coin with a face value of 10 złoty and on 6 August 2021, a gold coin with a face value of 200 złoty – “Polish Olympic Team – Tokyo 2020”.

From 23 July to 8 August 2021, Tokyo will be the sports capital of the world – the city will host the Games of the XXXII Olympiad – Tokyo 2020. The games will be staged a year later than originally planned due to the COVID-19 pandemic. The Olympic Games are a special event, held every four years, and an Olympic medal is an exceptionally valuable trophy for every athlete.

The capital of Japan will host Olympics athletes for the second time. In 1964, Polish athletes won 23 medals there, and Dąbrowski's Mazurka (the Polish National Anthem) was played for them as many as seven times.

Now, with a new generation of competitors entering the Olympic Games, it will be extremely difficult to achieve such a result. Yet, we hope that the white and red team will manage to exceed the number of 11 medals, which is the tally of Olympic trophies taken by Poles in Rio de Janeiro in 2016.

Our greatest hopes rest on the men's volleyball team – the current world champions. It is this team that the 200 złoty coin issued by Narodowy Bank Polski is dedicated to. Both the obverse and the reverse of the coin feature silhouettes of the players soaring over the net and knocking the ball into their rivals' field. We hope that the Polish volleyball team will be just as impressive (and successful) at the Olympic Games.

Other sports we are pinning our medal hopes on are athletics and water sports (kayaking, rowing, and sailing). The reverse of the 10 złoty coin features the silhouettes of two female competitors in a double kayak. The obverse, in turn, bears the image of the famous Fuji volcano, with cherry blossom branches symbolising the host country of the Tokyo Olympic Games.
